Take this special course during Spring 2010, the 65th anniversary of the end of the Holocaust and the Second World War

THE HOLOCAUST: HISTORIOGRAPHIC, PHILOSOPHIC AND RELIGIOUS PERSPECTIVES  T/R 2:00-3:20PM (3 units)

The course introduces the student to the extensive historiography covering the period of recent history and associated events cumulatively nominated the Holocaust/Shoah. It will provide opportunity for personal and in-depth analysis of some of the causes and consequences of this “war against the Jews.” Items for study and reflection will include dramatic literary and film narratives, along with traditional historical analyses and documents. A special trip to the Museum of Tolerance (LA) may also be arranged.

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

1. Analyze and discuss the rise and fall of National Socialism in Germany, 1920s-1940s
2. Analyze and discuss the roots of anti-Semitism that flourished during the 19th-20th centuries
3. Analyze and discuss the role of Christianity during the Holocaust and in the post-Holocaust era
4. Analyze and discuss the value of and problems created by the historiographic record of the Holocaust
