Undergraduate Curriculum Committee
March 3, 2003

Present: Jonathan Parker, James Lu, David Pearson, Scott Key, Erica McLaughlin, Bruce Stokes, Daniel Skubik, Susanne Reid, Andy Herrity, Shawnn Koning, Margie Arnett, Phil Martinez

- Dr. Herrity presented two recommendations to the Committee from the School of Business.
  - Five courses were presented to retire. BUS 360, BUS 365, BUS 373, BUS 423 and BUS 468 have been recommended since none have been offered since 1995 and are no longer needed. An additional recommendation was made to retire BUS 304. This course has been replaced by BUS 301. In addition, BUS 301 was recommended for removal only from the e-Business concentration since it is a core requirement for all Business Administration majors. All recommendations were approved.
  - Dr. Herrity presented recommendations for prerequisite changes for eight different courses. With the exception of the recommendation for BUS 433, all others were approved. The recommendation for BUS 433, International Economics & Marketing will be tabled and possibly resubmitted at a future meeting.

- Dr. Lu brought two proposals from the Modern Languages and Literature Department.
  - Changing SPA 115 and SPA 125 from requirements to prerequisites for the Spanish Minor will bring the program more in line with other Spanish Minor programs nationwide, and also make it more attractive to students. This recommendation was approved.
  - A revision to the description for ENG 201 was discussed. It was approved that the third and final sentence of the course description would read as follows: “Majors and minors should take this introduction course as soon as they successfully complete ENG 123.”

- Mr. Pearson brought two recommendations to the committee from the Department of Kinesiology.
  - KIN 402, Diversity in Sport and Physical Activity was recommended as a new course. After some discussion of the multicultural nature (an “M”-course) of the course it was approved with the understanding that the syllabus would be further enhanced.
  - Mr. Pearson brought the recommendation that KIN 293, Nutrition, be raised to an upper division-level course. After discussion it was agreed that the new name for the course would be “Physiology of Nutrition.”

- Dr. Reid brought a recommendation regarding the restructuring of the core of the Bachelor of Arts in Music with four independent emphases. The restructuring will include three new core courses, the placement of two existing courses in the core, and the alignment of the four new emphases. The committee agreed to approve the School of Music’s general direction and to look forward to their presentation of more detail and syllabi for the new courses at a future meeting.
  - The new courses will be a MUS 09_, “Oratorio Choir & Orchestra (1/2 unit per semester), MUS __, “Music History IV, and MUS __, “Music in Worship.” The two existing courses being added to the core are MUS 412, “Conducting,” and MUS 382, “Music Technology.”
  - The four emphases are as follows: Applied Music (Performance), Church Music, Music Education, and Music Theory & Composition.

- The next meeting will be called near the end of March 2003.

- The meeting was adjourned at 11:34 a.m.
