California Baptist University
Undergraduate Curriculum Committee
November 13, 2006

- Jonathan Parker opened with prayer.

- James Lu proposed changes to the curriculum in the creative writing concentration to include more courses that actually focus on creative writing.
  - Delete ENG 303, ENG 353, ENG 424, ENG 383 as options within the concentration
  - Add new courses
    - ENG 273 Introductory Creative Writing. This course is a pre-requisite for ENG 373, ENG 383, and ENG 473. ENG 123 is a pre-requisite for ENG 273.
    - ENG 383 Creative Writing Special Topics. This course is repeatable for credit with different topics.
  - Change the title of ENG 373 from Creative Writing to Intermediate Creative Writing to better reflect the course sequencing

The proposal was approved.

- Erica McLaughlin distributed and discussed a new Library Impact Statement to be included in all new program proposals for majors parallel to the proposal approved by Graduate Curriculum Committee for graduate programs. An additional category will be added to the form to include a technology component. Deans and Chairs are encouraged to submit this form when adding minors or concentrations as well.

The proposal was approved.

- Connie Milton proposed that NUR 365 be approved to meet the technological competency required for general education in lieu of CIS 265 for those students not able to document competency otherwise. This will be noted on the degree page for the BSN.

The proposal was approved.

- John Shoup proposed that the 300 and 400 course numbers for Education be reinstated after further consideration of the impact on students and implications for the institution.

The proposal was approved.

- The meeting was adjourned at 10:30 am. The next meeting of the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee is scheduled for Monday, December 11, 2006. Agenda items should be submitted to DawnEllen Jacobs no later than Thursday, December 7 for distribution to members.
