Prospective international students must meet the following qualifications to be considered for admission to a graduate program at CBU.

1. Complete and submit an International Student Application and an application for the desired graduate program.
2. Submit a non-refundable US $45 application-processing fee.
3. Meet the following application and fee deadlines:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Session</th>
<th>Deadline</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fall Semester</td>
<td>June 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring Semester</td>
<td>October 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summer Semester (May-Aug)</td>
<td>February 15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4. Applicants must possess the equivalency of a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university. Foreign transcripts must be evaluated by a pre-approved evaluation service. The evaluation must contain a detailed report including GPA.

5. Applicants must certify English language proficiency by submitting a minimum score of 550 (213 on the computerized version) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). Applicants may also certify English language proficiency by submitting a minimum score of 6 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). A current, original certificate that indicates the applicant’s name and test score must be sent to the Graduate Services Office.

6. Applicants to the MBA program must submit a score report with a minimum score of 500 on the GMAT (Graduate Management Admissions Test). Applicants to the graduate programs in English, Music, Kinesiology, Education, and Counseling Psychology must submit a minimum combined score of 1,000 on the verbal and quantitative sections of the GRE (Graduate Record Exam). A current, original score report that indicates the applicant’s name and test score must be sent to the Graduate Admissions Office.

7. The US Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services requires documentation verifying the applicant’s ability to meet financial obligations (tuition, books, transportation, room and board, personal expenses, and health insurance) for the first year. The document should always:
   - Be sent directly to CBU from the financial institution
   - Be on official letterhead
   - State the exact amount (in US dollars) designated to the applicant for educational purposes.

8. International students are required to pay school expenses each semester in full at the time of registration. It is required that a deposit of the first semester expenses (tuition and fees) be made in advance to CBU Student Accounts Office to facilitate payment. The deposit is refundable if the student does not enroll at California Baptist University.

Approval and Form I-20
When the above procedures have been completed, the applicant’s file will be evaluated. Upon approval of admission, a letter of acceptance and Form I-20 will be issued.

Clearance For Enrollment
Upon arriving at CBU, and before beginning the registration process, the student must submit Form I-94 and passport to the Director of International Students to verify Immigration and Naturalization Service approval.
California Baptist University does not illegally discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age or disability in admissions or in the administration of its educational policies, programs or activities. While CBU strives to be distinctly Christian, this does not mean that only those from Christian backgrounds are admitted as students. It does mean, however, that every student is expected to accept and conform to the basic policies of the university that relate to the spiritual and social character of the campus environment. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Unmarried cohabitation with members of the opposite sex, sexual misconduct, and homosexual behavior are unacceptable for CBU Students.
2. Drinking alcoholic beverages or being under the influence of intoxicants and using or possessing illegal drugs while in residence at the university are not permitted.
3. Smoking or using any tobacco product is not permitted on the university campus.

The California Baptist University Standard of Student Conduct further delineates behavioral expectations of students. The standard of student conduct can be found in the university catalog and the student handbook along with the disciplinary procedures used when students fail to comply with these expectations.

I have read the above statement and understand the expectations that will be placed upon me as a CBU student. I commit myself to abiding by these policies and understand that failure to do so may result in confrontation, guidance, or discipline. I certify that statements made in this application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Applicant's Signature ___________________________ Date _____________