English Major Requirements
(This information may also be used by students minoring in English)

- Prerequisites: ENG113 and ENG123 are prerequisite to all other ENG coursework

- Core Requirements:
  - Lower Division
    - 200 level courses
  - Upper Division
    - 300 and 400 level courses

- Concentration: English offers an Optional Concentration in Creative Writing. This concentration requires the completion of 12.0 units in addition to the core major requirements.
What order should I take my English major classes in?

- ENG201 should be taken as soon as possible after completion of ENG123.
- Recommended order:
  - Sophomore year – ENG201 and other 200 level literature survey courses. An Upper Division ENG course may be taken in the 2nd semester if you are comfortable doing so.
  - Junior year – ENG350 (fall) and ENG401 (spring), Upper Division ENG elective courses
  - Senior year – ENG499 should be taken in final semester. (Note: ENG499, Senior Project, is a very demanding course. It is recommended that you plan ahead in your scheduling in order to keep this semester as light as possible in terms of other coursework).
If I’m considering the English major, which classes would also work as General Education requirements?

3.0 units of ENG (above the 123 level) are required for General Education.

• All English major courses will work to meet the ENG G.E. requirement, but here are some that are more recommended by the department for entry level students (depending on your interest):
  – Lower Division: 213, 223, 233, 243, 253, 263
  – Upper Division: 301, 307, 373, 402, 404, 405, 406, 407, 413, 433, 454, 467
Planning Ahead…

- Grad School – Every graduate program is different. Research different programs to see what field/expertise they prepare you for and what the prerequisites are. If you would like to discuss the different programs out there and which might be best for you, talk to the department faculty or the Dean.

- Credential Program – Students who are interested in teaching English at the Junior High or High School level should contact Professor Tronti at (951) 343-4290.

✔ For information on the Graduate Program in English or the Credential Program at California Baptist University please contact Graduate Admissions at (951) 343-4249. The Graduate Admissions office is located in YCTR B142.
